ID 24-577 Actions pertaining to adopting a five-year plan for residential solid waste service charges in accordance with Proposition 218:

1. HEARING on Proposed Increases to Residential Solid Waste Service Charges in accordance with Proposition 218
2. BILL (for introduction) - Adopting a Five-Year Rate Plan for Residential Solid Waste Service Charges in Accordance with California Constitution Article XIID

The above item was called to order at 5:02 P.M. and was presented to Council by Director of Public Utilities Buche. Upon call, following members of the public addressed Council: Rene Poua, Rita McPeters, Karen Simmons Gillian, Nancy Richardson, Irma Lopez, Olga Valle, Lauren Dueck, Lisa Flores, Lynn Owens, and Joe Barson. Public comment closed at 6:36 P.M.

Council discussion included: last time solid waste rates increased; tipping fees; rate payer funded verses tax payer funded services; consequences if rates don't increase; operation cleanup; changes in services; general fund; discount programs; delinquent accounts; impact on seniors; why rates have not increased since 2009; community meetings held; decreases and increase in service; additional services that did not make it in the proposal; reduction in services; deficits if rates are not increased; green waist and recyclables costs; labor, fuel, and equipment; seniors and residents already enrolled in discount programs; adopting a resolution for egregious delinquencies; SB1383, fines and compliance; rate payer study; buying back compost; upgrading heavy use truck to electric; paying back the interdepartmental loan; bulking item collection program; analysis on infrastructure costs; master plan's additional costs; additional rate increases; recycling outreach; litter control; Beautify Fresno program; population growth; vehicle replacement.

City Clerk Stermer announced the protest results: For the protest to prohibit City Council from adopting the proposed rate plan, a total of 58,480 written protests must be received by the City Clerk by the close of the public hearing. The results of the majority protests process are as follows:

A: Prior to today, we received and reviewed 55,863 protests.

B: Of those reviewed protests, 50,315 were determined to be valid.

C: Of those protests that were valid 34,803 were attributed to unique APN's, meaning these are not duplicate protests and only one protest per parcel was counted.

Prior to the close of the public hearing, we received 47 protests. We have not reviewed these protests to determine weather they are duplicates or valid. Without reviewing these protests and assuming that they are valid and not duplicates, the total number of protests received is 34, 850. Which is not enough for the protest to succeed.
