CONTESTED CONSENT

1-D ID BILL (for introduction) - Repealing the Money Back Guarantee/Business
20-001486 Streamlining Act

Upon call, the following member of the public addressed Council: Lisa Flores.

Councilmember Bredefeld addressed several of his concerns with repealing the Money Back Guarantee program and suggested not to repeal the program but to improve it. He asked staff several questions regarding the pros and cons of the program and if the Department has paid back any money to developers since the program began. Director Clark responded.

Discussion was held between Councilmembers expressing their opposition in continuing the program and support the repealing of the program. Councilmembers spoke regarding the fundamentals, if there is a need for a competitive pay increase for employees, and cross training in the department. Councilmember Chavez expressed his concerns with keeping the department accountable and stated he expects his 18 projects to continue to be worked on.
