

CITY OF FRESNO

Office of Council President Nelson Esparza and Council Vice President Tyler Maxwell

Is hereby presented in honor of:

Older Americans Month

WHEREAS: May is nationally recognized as Older Americans Month, a time dedicated to honoring the achievements, contributions, and enduring legacy of older Americans, while also reaffirming our commitment to advancing programs and opportunities that allow seniors to live with dignity, independence, and purpose; and

WHEREAS: The City of Fresno proudly recognizes and celebrates the extraordinary and ongoing contributions of older Americans, whose wisdom, resilience, compassion, and leadership continue to strengthen our community through volunteerism, mentorship, civic participation, cultural preservation, and the countless ways they enrich the lives of residents across our city; and

WHEREAS: The West Fresno Family Resource Center and Dr. William Dailey Jr have long served as a vital pillar within the Fresno community through its commitment to empowering families, supporting underserved residents, and connecting individuals with critical resources and services that promote health, stability, and opportunity; and through its hosting of the annual Senior Symposium, the organization further demonstrates its dedication to uplifting older adults by providing valuable health information, educational workshops, community resources, and meaningful opportunities for connection and support; and

WHEREAS: The City of Fresno is strengthened when residents of every age, ability, and background are welcomed, valued, and encouraged to share their experiences, wisdom, and resilience, and recognizes the importance of fostering a compassionate and inclusive community that ensures older Americans have access to the support and opportunities needed to remain active and connected members of society; and

WHEREAS: The City of Fresno remains committed to promoting a more inclusive, accessible, and age-friendly community by investing in programs, services, and infrastructure that empower older residents to live healthy, engaged, and fulfilling lives. This commitment is exemplified by the City's investment in a state-of-the-art, 34,000-square-foot senior center designed to foster connection, wellness, lifelong learning, and community for Fresno's older American population for generations to come.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED: that we, Mayor Jerry P. Dyer, Council President Nelson Esparza, Council Vice President Tyler Maxwell, and the Fresno City Council, do hereby proclaim, May 2026, as:

“Older Americans Month”

in the City of Fresno.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we have hereunto set our hands
