Briefly explain why are you interested in serving on this board or commission?

I am deeply committed to advancing equitable access to workforce opportunities in the Central Valley. Serving on this board allows me to contribute to strategic efforts that uplift underserved communities, foster economic mobility, and align talent development with the evolving needs of our regional industries. My passion lies in creating pathways for individuals especially those from historically marginalized backgrounds to thrive in high-impact careers.

Educational background, Schools Attended, Degrees and Certifications

WGU - Masters of Business Administration Current - Columbia Southern University

Briefly explain your qualifications or areas of demonstrated expertise for this board or commission.

I bring over a decade of experience in workforce development, operational leadership, and community engagement through my role at PG&E and my involvement with AABE. I've led regional initiatives focused on talent pipeline development, supplier diversity, and youth career exposure such as the Energy Academy and partnerships with local schools. My work centers on building inclusive systems that connect education, training, and employment in meaningful ways. I also supported the FRWDB Valley Build program as a key speaker and have served for the last 3 years.

Do you or an immediate family member have any professional or financial relationship that may present a potential conflict of interest for this board, commission or similar body?
