Responsible Neighborhood Market act.

We are applying for beer and wine license to help our customers get all their needs in one location and help them save the money and time to travel to further places. We are in a low-income neighborhood and some of our customers don't have transportation to go other places. Our store has a meat department and produce department and it will have a restaurant that will serve hot and cold food. Also, we have a payment center that has multiple services like cashing checks paying all types of bills and send money and receive money.

We are not near any school, church or any play grounds, we will abide to section 15-2706 in our establishment by not allowing

1. Not allowing loitering
2. No drinking in the premises
3. ID all customers
4. Not allowed to sell to already intoxicated patrons to avoid nuisance to all neighborhood
5. We will work with the police department and local fire department and the city of Fresno to help with anything needed to keep out neighborhood safe and to enforce to the law.
