Chen showed photos from her most recent site visit and provided an update on the latest information from the property owner (who was not present).

The Commission voiced concern about the upcoming rainy season and asked about the timeline of the property owner. They went on to ask Staff about options available to use Code Enforcement to put pressure on the property owner with the hopes of speeding up the permanent protection. Commissioner Halajian asked about a potential lien and Director Clark explained the limits of their authority but promised to talk to Code Enforcement about potential options.

Staff and the Commissioners discussed the expiration of the Conditions of Approval and Staff said they would confirm the upcoming expiration date (36 month term).

- VII-D ID 24-923 Discussion of pending legislation (AB 2580) that would require analysis of the impact of historic designations on a city's ability to meet its housing needs

6:42pm

Chen gave an overview of AB2580, focusing on the impact of new designations and reporting requirements.

Chair Sponsler reported that it was the final day for the Governor's signature and voiced the importance of how this law would influence new Historic Districts with any housing element. Commissioner Halajian noticed adaptive reuse would be highly affected.

Commissioners clarified the reporting changes and Sponsler reported from his conference how this law would fit it on the local, state, and federal level.
