KACEY AUSTON

EXPERIENCE

Auston Consulting

2005-Present

The mission of Auston Consulting is to bridge the gap between the public and private sectors through communication and liaison. I represent numerous Central Valley corporations and small businesses on a range of government relation issues. My primary focus is on issue resolution with various public agencies, consensus building, and development of strategic public relations and community outreach programs. Corporate and municipal clients include: Mid Valley Disposal, Producer's Dairy, Kroeker Construction, Sunset Waste, HealthWise Medical Solutions, Maria's Tacos, City of Chowchilla, Wild Carter & Tipton, and Church Avenue Investors.

Liaison with California High Speed Rail Authority

A major focus of Auston Consulting is providing integral community liaison for corporate and private property owners on a broad range of issues including imminent domain negotiations, permitting and alignment strategies. I negotiate complex agreements for the private sector that balance corporate needs with those of the Authority, community and municipalities.

Other +Client Highlights

- Created comprehensive facilities plan for imminent domain and EIR matters related to high-speed rail alignment for Producer's Dairy
- Designed and implemented government relations plan for Kroeker Construction
- Liaise with government officials for Mid Valley Waste throughout the Central Valley
- Implemented HealthWise Medical Solution's statewide outreach program
- Consulted with Wild Carter & Tipton on eminent domain issues
- Navigated permitting process through the County of Fresno for Maria's Tacos

Woman-Owned Small Business Owner

1990-Present

Studio in the Tower / Appearances Salon / Studio 614

Established three businesses as sole proprietor responsible for budgeting, payroll, staffing and all administrative tasks for these successful salons. For three consecutive years, The Studio in the Tower was awarded the sought-after People's Choice Award from the Fresno Bee.

EDUCATION

Fresno City College

1989-1990

Liberal arts undergraduate studies focusing on business, government affairs and history.
