Anne Speake, the founder and President of International English Institute, is widely recognized as an authority on overseas marketing. For 22 years, she traveled extensively in Europe, the Middle East, Asia, and South America to promote IEI. During this time, the school enrolled over 44,000 students, some of who are heads of state and leaders in worldwide businesses. In 2001, she joined her husband, Mike Hamzy, as President of his civil engineering company, Harbison International, Inc.

She has served as President on the boards of the Greater Area Chamber of Commerce, the Fresno Revitalization Corp., the Fresno Convention and Visitor's Bureau, and the CSUF Business Associates. She ~~now serves~~ as a board member of the San Joaquin Political Academy and the Fresno Philharmonic. She has served on the boards of the EDC, Fresno Art Museum, FRESPEC, COMPAC, Marjorie Mason Fnd., CSUF Alumni and Friends, Fresno Community Hospital Fnd., and the New United Way. She was Vice President of the National Association of Arab Americans and Co-Chair of on the Future of Education for Fresno County Commission. She was appointed by Congressman George Radanovich as a delegate to the California Republican Party and served for 16 years. She was ~~recently~~ appointed as a delegate by Assembly woman, Linda Halderman, In 1995 she was appointed as a delegate by Gov. Pete Wilson to the White House Conference on Small Business. Gov. Wilson also appointed her to the California Council to promote Business Ownership by Women.

In 1990, IEI received the U.S. Small Business Administration's "Business of the Year in California" award. In 1991, IEI won the "Business Enterprise of the Year" award for outstanding contributions to Fresno's economy and for business excellence. In 1993, Mrs. Speake was presented the Baker, Peterson, & Franklin "Top 5 Award for Excellence." Mrs. Speake was awarded the CSUF Sid Craig School of Business "Alumni of the Year Award" for 1994. In 1998, the U.S. Small Business Administration recognized Mrs. Speake as the Central California Women in Business Advocate of the Year, and the National Honor Society made her an Honorary Beta Gamma Sigma. In February 2000, Mrs. Speake was the Leon S. Peter's Award recipient for a career of outstanding business leadership in community service.
