6. Discussion: Subcommittee Reports

6-A. Cultural Arts Grant Fund Subcommittee

Vice Chair Ward reported. The Culture Arts Subcommittee met earlier in the month. Minutes from that meeting were included in the current agenda. The subcommittee made initial recommendations for award allocations, and applicants were notified of those recommendations on September 5, 2025. The appeal window remained open through the evening of this meeting, and the subcommittee is scheduled to meet tomorrow to review any submitted appeals. The subcommittee also discussed process improvements for next year's grant review cycle. It was recommended that all participants in the grant review process complete implicit bias training, a suggestion made by an applicant and modeled after the California Arts Council's practices. Additionally, the subcommittee is seeking community feedback on further improvements to ensure a fair and transparent process. Both the Arts Council and subcommittee members expressed a strong commitment to continuously strengthening the process.

7. Members Reports and Comments

COMMISSIONER BARRAZA REPORTS AND COMMENTS. Expresses appreciation to staff for organizing a successful soccer event held at the Mosqueda Center. Noted the high quality of the event and the sport, emphasizing soccer's growing popularity and demand within the community. Noted regularly receiving community feedback, both positive and critical.

COMMISSIONER CAGLIA REPORTS AND COMMENTS. Expresses appreciation for the event organized by Dr. Lilia Chavez at the park, highlighting the impressive and well-coordinated display of the drawn on columns, and commended the quality of the work and expresses high regard for her efforts. Shared having listened to a segment on KMJ titled "Legacies and Legends", which discussed the origins of baseball in Fresno and noted the important role parks played in supporting the sport's development.

COMMISSIONER DOHLIN REPORTS AND COMMENTS. Acknowledged the inherent challenges of the Cultural Arts Grant process and notes that it is unlikely to satisfy everyone completely. Commended the significant time, effort, thoughtful consideration, and good faith demonstrated by the Fresno Arts Council, subcommittee members, and the broader arts community. Emphasized that the current process reflects progress from the previous year and continues to improve due to the dedication of those involved.

CHAIR MCCOY REPORTS AND COMMENTS. Announced an upcoming Community Mural Refresh event honoring the 93706 zip code. Encouraged residents, community leaders, and local organizations to participate in repainting and revitalizing California's largest street mural as a tribute to the community's spirit, resilience, and creativity. The event is scheduled for Saturday, September 27, from 8:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m., at the corner of Cesar Chavez and Klette Avenue, across from Madison High School. It is hosted by Faith in the Valley, Fresno City Council District 3, Councilmember Miguel Arias's office, Southwest Power Team, and the Fresno Housing Authority.
