Kristi T. Lawrence

I was born in Provo, Utah. I attended Brigham Young University High School and then Graduated from Brigham Young University, with a B. S. Degree in Business Management and Marketing.

I married, Stephen W. Lawrence, in 1968 in Salt Lake City where he managed a B. F. Goodrich store. We are the parents of 2 children and have 8 grandchildren. In 1973 we moved to the Bay area and then came to Fresno in 1974 for Steve to manage the B.F. Goodrich store on North Blackstone Ave.

In 1976, we purchased the store from B.F. Goodrich Inc. and renamed it Blackstone Tire. We sold the store and retired in 2000.

I stayed at home and raised the children, until 1992 when I opened a bookstore on north Blackstone Ave. I operated this store until 1994, when Steve had a heart transplant and it became necessary for me to take over the management of the tire company.

After retirement, we went to Salt Lake City and served on Temple Square, as Service Missionaries, during the Winter Olympics.

Steve had served on the Board of Trustees of the Fresno Mosquito and Vector Control District for a number of years. At the time of his death, in 2005, I was asked to complete his term and have served ever since.

I currently own and operate Lawrence Tire & Service, with my son. I remain actively engaged in community activity, Church activity and continuing education.
