For what Board or Commission are you applying?

Fresno Madera Area Agency on Aging Board

Briefly explain why you are interested in serving on this Board(s) or Commission(s):

I live in District 2 of the City of Fresno. I first came to Fresno in 1970 to attend Fresno State College, by the time I had graduated in 1974 it was California State University, Fresno and I had fallen in love with the City of Fresno and the surrounding area. I worked 25 years for the Department of Treasury. My final years were working for the National Taxpayer Advocate in Washington DC writing for the Annual Report to Congress.

I have served the City of Fresno in a volunteer capacity since 2001. After I retired in 2005 I expanded to leadership positions in various volunteer organizations and have helped to lead them along toward achieving their missions and goals. I am now on a County of Fresno Board which reviews the spending of Measure B funds through the Fresno County
