Staffing Responsibilities:

The lieutenant (1) has oversight and direct control of all supervisors and officers assigned to the Fair. The lieutenant will work directly with the event sergeant in order to properly manage the policing of the Fair.

The event sergeant (1) has the responsibility of directing all officers, supervisors and units assigned to the fair. This responsibility includes acting as a liaison with other law enforcement agencies assisting the Fresno Police Department in our efforts.

The event officers (3) work hand in hand with the event sergeant to ensure the smooth and seamless operation of all personnel involved in policing the fair. Both the event sergeant and event officers will be present during operating hours of the Fair.

The community services officer/administrative assistant position acts as an office assistant. This civilian position in the police department has been severely reduced due to budget cuts, and may not be included in the operation over the two year contract. Other arrangements will be made should changes in the positions status affect our staffing.

The dispatcher controls and directs radio traffic for all units involved and is the link to Fresno PD units working in the city. They work off site from the Fresno Police Departments Communication Center.

The contract sergeant and officers are directly involved in the policing of the Big Fresno Fair. They are the men and women that will be in direct contact with the patrons of the Big Fresno Fair on a daily basis.

The contingency budget is intended to be a cushion to protect the Big Fresno Fair and the Police Department in the event additional policing costs may occur. An example of the use of contingency funds would be additional officers having to be called in for extremely large or unruly crowds, major investigations outside the normal scope of the fair, or additional policing needed for last minute changes in entertainment. The use of any contingency funds will be determined by the Fair Commander and this will be reported to the BFF CEO. The contingency should be applied to each of the two years of the contract individually.
