rupt current models of care & support across the reproductive course

duce preterm births & improve preemie outcomes

Background of PTBi

Background:

- This effort in Fresno County is supported by the University of California – San Francisco's Preterm Birth Initiative, a 10-year, philanthropic initiative working across three counties in California, including Fresno
- During early 2015, a group of local leaders came together to create this initiative to improve the health of women and babies in Fresno County, specifically reducing the rate of preterm birth.
- These Fresno County leaders formed a Steering Committee, and have met monthly since February 2015.

The initial focus areas and cross-cutting strategies

Strategic focus areas:

Health & Education before Pregnancy

Deliver primary, behavioral, reproductive health services, and health education to empower women and men to be healthy before having children.

Care and Support for Pregnant Women

Deliver services and resources to women in their communities and neighborhoods to improve birth outcomes, address stress, and improve social and emotional support during pregnancy.

Coordination of Care for Women

Improve the coordination and integration of physical and behavioral healthcare, social services, and other support for women before, during, and after pregnancy

Cross-cutting strategies:

Changing policy

Providing culturally competent care

Delivering services in the community

Addressing the natural and built environment's impact on women's health

Improving education and economic life options for women and men (in collaboration with other initiatives focused on education/economic development)

Preterm birth is one of the most dramatic and cking examples of race and place inequality in th country"

Fresno County PTBi Opportunities

Fresno PTBi Workgroups

- Health and Education before Pregnancy
- Care and Support for Pregnant Women
- Coordination of Care for Women
- Shared Measures

Health and Education before Pregnancy

GOAL: Deliver primary, behavioral, reproductive health services and health education to empower women and men to be healthy before having children. Alma McHenry and Jeff Hunt (FCOE) are the Chairs of this work group.

The work groups has:

- Identified pregnancy rates by district
- Conducted site visit in Parlier where access to clinical services are provided to students
- Conducted survey among district staff/nurses about needs and challenges
- Superintendent Yovino is now allowing reproductive health services from FCOE's mobile unit

Care and Support for Pregnant Women

GOAL: Deliver services and resources to women in their communitie and neighborhoods to improve birth outcomes, address stress, and mprove social and emotional support during pregnancy. Erica Alexander (March of Dimes) and Dr. Subha Ladella (UCSF – Fresno) are the Chairs of this work group.

he work group has:

- Launched the first demonstration project for Group Pregnancy Care
- Establish a Protocol team for Group Pregnancy Care
- Prioritized interventions to address preterm birth

Care and Coordination for Women

GOAL: Improve the coordination and integration of physical and behavioral healthcare, social services, and other support for wome before, during, and after pregnancy. This work group has not aunched yet.

Current Activities:

- Learning from moms/families with lived experience with preterm birth about their challenges with systems and services. What's working, what's not working?
- Meeting with community partners that provide services for families with preterm birth experiences
- Identifying the multiple initiatives and networks that are for maternal & child care
- Developing a problem statement based on the information we are collecting from the 50 families/moms with lived experience

Shared Measures

GOAL: Choosing indicators, collecting data, and measuring the impact of our programmatic work on preterm birth rates and associated factors in Fresno County.

The workgroup has:

- Received a RBA training to help focus efforts on choosing indicators and performar measures for the overall initiative and workgroup specific projects
- Met with workgroup Chairs to select and assess indicators for ongoing efforts
