Subject: Snoops 2 night concert proposal at Woodward Park

REC'D JAN 23 '18 PM4:11
FRESNO CITY CLERK

Dear Kristina,

The residence surrounding Woodward Park are vehemently against having a two consecutive night concert at Woodward Park in May. Here are our reasons in a nut shell for making common sense decisions.

1. The sound factor would violate the curfew ordinance which is 10:00p.m. not 12:00p.m.

There are people who work and need to sleep.

2. Alcohol being sold is another concern as a safety issue for those attending as well as the safety of minors, pedestrians and drivers.

3. This concert would set a president for other concerts of this type.

4. According to Aren Hekimian, promoter, "As long as people don't park in the neighborhoods, I think we'll be ok."

Does the park have sufficient parking? Who will monitor the parking so that people do not park in the neighborhoods.

5. If the stadium was not available, why wasn't another date chosen.

6. We pay an association fee which means we have restrictions that enable us to enjoy our neighbor. That is why we chose to live here.
