

Fresno Youth Commission (FYC)

BYLAWS

- I. PURPOSE: This document ensures protection under the law, of Commission affairs conducted by youth members and the Youth Commission staff. Actions within this legal body must be followed through as stated below.
- II. ORGANIZATION: The Youth Commission shall be composed and run in the manner indicated by the Ordinance that created it (Ordinance 2015-17), and/or by any amendment to said ordinance, and by any City of Fresno Municipal Code or City regulations. The following guidelines shall also apply:
 1. ALL committees shall be appointed to represent and carry out specific functions on behalf of the Youth Commission. Transaction of business for the Youth Commission may only occur within these groups, unless a committee meets the Brown Act guidelines, in which case committee meetings shall properly noticed and be open to the public.
- III. MEMBERSHIP: Appointment, Offices, Methods, Powers are:
 1. Leaders/ participants and/ or non-participants of the Youth Leadership Institute chapters are freely able to complete a written application through the organization. Public youth who are not involved with YLI, have the responsibility to turn in and ensure the application is received by a local school or office where a Youth Commission coordinator work and/ or visit (electronic submissions will only be accepted if contact with staff is well established).
 2. Interview screening will only happen once all the applications have been turned in and the deadline is reached. Commissioner applicants and their counterpart Council District office member or representative, YLI staff person, and the resigning Youth Commissioner (preferable of said district) will be present if possible. Commissioners who lose their place in the commission will not qualify to be present at the new applicant interview screening.

3. Commissioners have the option to choose the Council District they want to apply for ONLY if they live in a different location than from where they go to school. Meaning, the applicant is granted their chosen representative district (if they have conflicting locations), by the Youth Commission Coordinator (under prior notification and permission FIRST). Final appointing power resides with the City Council Members or the Mayor.
4. Should a commissioner resign, they shall submit a written letter of resignation, in advance, to the Commission, which will forward a copy of the letter to his/her Council/Mayor office and the City Clerk. This will assist in finding a replacement.
5. Youth Commission officers shall consist of a Chairperson, 1st Vice Chair, 2nd Vice Chair, Secretary, and Sergeant of Arms, any other positions must be decided collectively within the group. The Chair shall be a voting member of the commission. When deemed necessary, any officers may be removed from office by a two-thirds majority vote of the Commission; but shall retain Commission membership. If an officer resigns prior to term's end, a successor will then be appointed by the Commission to complete the duration of that term. Commissioners may not hold more than one executive office at a time. Such officers may, however, serve as officers on other committees and boards within the Commission.

All committees must be created/approved by Youth Commission. Each one shall have at least ONE commissioner. The respective members of these committees shall appoint their own officers. All business conducted must be approved by Youth Commission during official meetings.

IV. RESPONSIBILITIES:

1. ALL commissioners shall act as liaisons between the Youth Commission (and ultimately the City Council Members) and their constituents; those constituents being either student body populations or community youth populations.

2. All commissioners must connect with the young people they represent, so as to best communicate their views and needs to the Youth Commission and the City Council Members. ALL commissioners shall represent the Youth Commission in the community through Town Hall expositions. Commissioners are tasked with inviting constituents from their respective districts.
4. ALL officers of the Commission and its committees shall carry out the responsibilities and duties traditional to their officer positions. It is assumed that all responsibilities not otherwise assigned reside with the Chairperson, and that they may delegate such tasks by appointment.
 - Chairperson
 - -1st Vice Chair, and 2nd Vice Chair
 - Secretary
 - Sergeant of Arms
5. The City Clerk shall refer any youth and children issues to the Commission for comment and recommendation. The Commission shall have 10 business days to respond.

V. MEETINGS:

1. A committee chairperson may call a meeting (with suitable prior notice to the members and staff).
2. A quorum shall be a majority of the appointed Commission members with voting rights. If a voting member is absent, then the alternate counterpart shall obtain voting rights for duration of the traditional voting member's absence. Commissioners must be present to transact any and all official business.
3. Minutes of all Commission and committee meetings shall be recorded. Copies will be sent to all members of the group and the Youth Commission Chairperson. All minutes of the regular Youth Commission meetings shall be placed on file with the City Clerk. Minutes shall show the times and place of meetings, a record of attendance, and all official actions taken.

4. Notice of any special meeting shall be given at least 24 hours in advance of the meeting; and may be called by the Commission/committee Chairperson, or a Youth Commission staff person.

AMENDMENTS:

Any of these bylaws may be amended or repealed, and new bylaws adopted, at any time by a majority vote of the Youth Commission.
