Nomination Statement

CCB is a nonprofit organization with a mission to gain full independence and equality of opportunity for all blind and visually impaired Californians. Under the leadership of Sarah Harris, the CCB membership has successfully worked within their local chapters to support their colleagues who live with all manner of visual impairment. Their advocacy, "hands on" advancement of work initiatives, leadership of financial management and lifestyle development activities has benefited the blind of Fresno and throughout California. CCB works to promote the concept that "Equal Access Is A Right" and that "Empowerment is Achieved Through Advocacy." I believe there is an importance in recognizing an organization that has been devoted to the betterment of folks living with sight, hearing, mobility and cognitive issues.
