UNSCHEDULED COMMUNICATION

Upon call, the following members of public addressed Council during Unscheduled Communication:

Brandi Nuse-Villegas with Homeless in Fresno - urged the Mayor and City Council for continued support and protection of the homeless in the community. She noted there was a lack of warming centers and shelters during the colder months in comparison to the number of homeless in need. Ms. Nuse-Villegas said when homeless were asked to move their tents and sleeping bags were sometimes taken away. She implored city officials to protect the homeless and work with the groups dealing directly with the homeless.

Philip Erro with Fresno Food Security Network - stated a consortium of food related organizations were drafting a resolution that would be presented to the Fresno City Council and the Fresno County Board of Supervisors for consideration and support. The resolution would ask President Trump to simplify the application and enrollment process for the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program, also known as CalFresh. The resolution would also ask for an increase in program funding.
