COUNCILMEMBER REPORTS AND COMMENTS

Councilmember Soria made reports. There was a community meeting in the Tower District to receive input and discuss the bike lane project in that area. October 26, 2022 would be the Tower Theater community meeting to discuss how people could access the theatre. The meeting would be followed by a movie night. The District 1 Fall Festival would take place at Inspiration park on October 29, 2022.

Councilmember Arias had announcements. The City intervened to provide additional time for District 6 residents that were being mass evicted from their apartments for, "substantial improvements." Forty to fifty District 6 residents were recently displaced due to an apartment fire on Belmont Avenue. Policy changes will be needed to combat a disturbing trend where foreign investment firms purchase rental properties and legally evict tenants in order to rent to higher paying tenants. The Department of Public Works (DPW) has been replacing missing trees in Downtown Fresno. DPW staff did a great job answering questions regarding the protected bike lanes during the recent Tower District community meeting. A memo or workshop was requested from the administration regarding the quality of insurance coverage for city employees.

Councilmember Bredefeld announced he recently had a basal-cell carcinoma removed from his scalp and reminded people the importance of having their skinned checked regularly. The Public Safety Memorial unveiling was scheduled for November 2, 2022, in front of City Hall. Councilmember Bredefeld engaged the administration in a brief conversation about the timing of Consent Calendar item 1-C (22-1646) which had been removed from the agenda by Councilmember Arias.

Vice President Maxwell announced the District 4 Fall Fest was scheduled for October 29 at Large Park and would include free pumpkins, snacks and a costume party.

Council President Esparza made reports. Eighteen AmeriCorps members were sworn in at the Fresno Center in District 7 on October 15. The Fresno Center's annual multicultural resource fair, Embrace Diversity Day, will happen on October 22. The Fresno Police Department, Central Precinct will host a Trunk-or-Treat event at the Manchester Center on October 22.

MAYOR/MANAGER REPORTS AND COMMENTS

Mayor Dyer reported to Council. Fresno City College scheduled a meeting tonight at Gaston Middle School to provide an update on the West Fresno Campus and the delays related to Pacific Gas and Electric. Beautify Fresno will be hosting alley clean up events in the Tower District, southeast and southwest Fresno over the weekend. The Mayor will be attending the Embrace Diversity event at the Fresno Center in District 7.

City Manager White noted the Parks, Recreation and Arts Commission recommend approval of the Tower Theater Fees currently on the agenda as Consent Calendar item 1-B (ID 22-1546). A memo was previously delivered to the Councilmembers with the recommendation.

UNSCHEDULED COMMUNICATION

Council President Esparza called for public comment on all Consent, Contested Consent and Closed Session items including Unscheduled Communication. The following members of the public addressed Council: Fernando Paul Elizando, Jenny Copeland, Dez Martinez, Regina Bell and Chalet Pelham, Christina Martinez, Lisa Flores, Brandi Nuse-Villegas.

The following speakers were in support of Consent Calendar item 1-H (ID 22- 1547) regarding the use of Parking Garage 7: Brianna Gallas, Lance Roberts, Nicole Orr, Jessica Rodriguez, Shelby Mendenall, Joseph Mesa, Gabriel Hernandez, Randal Soto, Yasmin Soto, Henriques Tarpin, Raylene Pino, Sia Parker, Rodrigo De La Rosa and Pa Richardson.

The following speakers were in support of Consent Calendar item 1-G (ID 22-1547) regarding funding for the Ciolence Intervention and Prevention Initiative Grant Program: Gloria Hernandez, Dez Martinez, Brandi Nuse-Villegas and Reverend Simon Bessel.
